

Cordially Invited to a Scientific Conference with International Participation
(Hybrid Version)

Victims of War and Lasting Legacy of Tragic Stories

Žrtve vojn in trajna zapuščina tragičnih zgodb

Thursday, 6. 10. 2022, 11:00–12:30 (CET)

Live: Melje, Stalag XVIII D, the Corner of Trdinova and Einspielerjeva Street

Online: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JdXk9fJBDRQ>

The Second World War presents the worst collapse of human civilization. In the grip of violence and consequences, it is the innocent civilians who are the ones who in the utter absurdness of war befall and suffer the worst consequences. It is a moral duty of all of us to identify and warn of war violence and the dispersal of hatred in warning and lesson against all that which, based on fictional paradigms, proclaims itself more worthy and promotes hate speech, ideological differentiation, and violence.

Event Speakers

- Assist. Daniel Siter: Young Researcher and PhD Candidate at Alma Mater Europaea – ISH and External Associate and Researcher at MRC Maribor (also moderator)
- Dr. Martin Premk: Historian and Member of the Parliament
- Dr. Alexandre Strokanov: Professor of History, Department of Criminal Justice, History and Global Studies, Director of Institute of Russian Language, History and Culture, Faculty Marshall, Northern Vermont University – Lyndon
- MA Zvezdan Markovič: Lieutenant Colonel and Chief of Military Museum of Slovenian Armed Forces
- Mr. Alexander Arsenev: Researcher, Victory Museum
- Dr. Nataša Mataušić: Museum Counsellor, Croatian History Museum

Director MRC Maribor
Janez Ujčič

